Mr. Bruce K. MacLaury
President
The Brookings Institution
1775 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20036

Dear Mr. MacLaury:

Thank you for your letter of 14 July 1988 inviting the Central Intelligence Agency to nominate senior officials to participate in the Brookings Institution's educational programs during 1989.

The Agency's Training Selection Board will make its selections in October, and our nominations will be forwarded to your Center for Public Policy Education.

Sincerely,

Chairman
CIA Training Selection Board

Mr. James H. Taylor
Executive Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Mr. Taylor:

On behalf of the Brookings Institution, I am pleased to announce the executive education programs which our Center for Public Policy Education will conduct for senior federal executives in 1989.

Your SES members will be particularly interested in our two-week "Perspectives on Public Policy" program and our one-week "Understanding Business Policy and Operations" conference. Technical managers and science policy executives may want to participate in our six-day "Outlook on Issues in Science and Technology" seminar. We also sponsor two-day "Executive Leadership Seminars" which focus on a particular policy area. All of these programs are described in detail in the enclosed brochure.

These programs have been specifically designed to meet the needs of senior government executives. I encourage you to nominate your senior managers; nominations for 1989 programs should be submitted no later than November 15, 1988. After that date, participants will be accepted on a space available basis. For any additional information about our programs, please contact the Registrar, Joan Milan at (202) 797-6284.

Sincerely,

Lawrence J. Korb
Director

PUBLIC POLICY CONFERENCES FOR SENIOR FEDERAL EXECUTIVES 1989 SERIES

Center for Public Policy Education
The Brookings Institution
Washington, D.C.

The brochure that accompanied this letter was sent to the Office of Training and Education in the Directorate of Administration, which in turn will notify appropriate Agency managers of the public policy conferences offered by Brookings. These conferences are run every year on a variety of subjects. If you would like to see the brochure itself, I can get a copy for you.

Dear Bill:

As in past years, I would like to invite you to nominate your senior executives to participate in the executive education programs which Brookings' Center for Public Policy Education will conduct in 1989. These programs have been specifically designed to meet the educational needs of Senior Executive Service members.

The enclosed brochure describes our programs, with information about dates, locations, and fees. We would appreciate receiving your nominations by November 15, 1988. After that date, participants will be accepted on a space available basis.

We appreciate your support, and pledge our continued dedication to a well-informed public service.

Sincerely yours,

Bruce
